EVERYONE

★ 2018-2019 CATALOGUE ★

a Capstone company — publishers for children

Here at Raintree, our vision is to improve the world through literacy. That's why we have been providing quality, reliable classroom and library resources internationally for over 20 years.

With a wealth of experience in meeting the needs of schools and libraries, we continue to work closely with educators and suppliers to provide relevant, high quality and accessible resources for readers of all abilities.

We're committed to meeting your needs—whatever your requirements or budget. So browse our catalogue, explore our books and get in touch—we look forward to hearing from you!

BOOK BANDED TITLES FOR GUIDED READING

Raintree has over 1700 book-banded non-fiction and fiction books to support Guided Reading. Each book builds reading confidence and introduces non-fiction features such as indexes and glossaries, as well as using simple patterned text and key vocabulary to develop understanding of core topics.

You'll find this information at the bottom of every page.

What are towns and cities?

Towns and cities are places where people live. Each one is home to thousands of people. Most towns and cities have shops, supermarkets, banks, buses, trains and safety services. Cities are usually bigger than towns. They often have many services such as hospitals and airports.

Living in the biggest town in the UK is London. The town has a population of over 9 million people.

KEYWORD FEASIBILITY AND PROSPECTS
 In about 3000 BC, two kingdoms had been established in ancient Egypt. Lower Egypt, where the Nile Delta was located, was in the north. The other kingdom, called Upper Egypt, was located south of Lower Egypt. In around 2686 BC, King Menes of Upper Egypt overpowered Lower Egypt and united the two kingdoms into the Egyptian empire. Menes created an early form of written language. The ancient Egyptians believed in many gods and goddesses. Some created the sun, the earth, the sky, the wind, and other things that were necessary for life. Others were local gods that were worshipped only in certain areas. In ancient Egypt pharaohs were the only humans who were thought to be able to communicate with the gods. Pharaohs took care of the temples where the gods were worshipped. Pharaohs were also in charge of religious rituals. For example, they put perfume on food on the tables of the gods inside the temples.

First World War Centenary

The 11th of November, 2018 marks the centenary of the day World War One finished.

Why poppies?

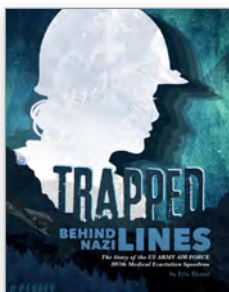

Poppies grow in the fields in France where the battles during World War I took place. They stopped growing during wartime but flowered again afterwards.

World War II (1939 - 1945)

From life on the home front to the horrors of the Holocaust and daring acts of bravery and resistance, these books will introduce readers to key aspects of World War II.

The captain and his boomie in the water. Shark's surrounded them.
 "Ah, that's better," said a grinning shark. "I can hear you talk better now."
 "Yes, I'm (shivered) with fear."
 "We're looking for the drooped octo-shark," the captain said.
 "Can you help us?"
 The shark glared at each other. "So you're an octo-shark?"
 one of them asked.
 "I'm just a monkey, just like the shark," the captain said with a grin.

See thrashed towards Captain's massive head.
 "Captain, you have to be careful."
 Just then, he tripped and bumped into the captain. They tumbled over the railing.

He won the League Championship trophy in the sky. It was time to celebrate. When the victory party was winding down, Coach Larsson cleared his throat and stood up. "Now, before everyone starts, we need to select our spring Player of the Season," he said. He showed everyone the miniature trophy. Player of the Season would win. Just had three just like it in his bedroom.

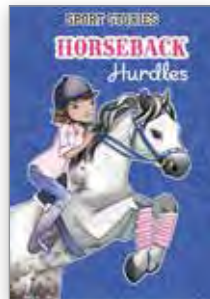

"Yes!" everyone shouted.

"But you selected him last season, and the season before that, and..." Coach said.

"Yes!" they shouted.

"Seriously," the coach said. "Isn't there someone else who could be Player of the Season?"

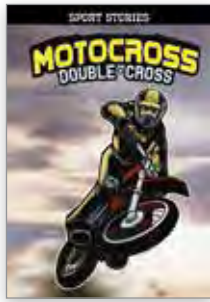

"Yes!" the boys repeated.

"When I was a child, I'd see what I can do." Batman watched as the monkey-like alien ramped into action, burling through the air with a gleam in his eye. He was a hero.

ALSO BY BATMAN

Batman's greatest enemy is back, and he's not alone. He's got a whole lot of friends with him. He's got a whole lot of power.

"The only thing I can do is what I can do." Batman watched as the monkey-like alien ramped into action, burling through the air with a gleam in his eye. He was a hero.

"I'm not a hero. I'm a villain." Batman watched as the monkey-like alien ramped into action, burling through the air with a gleam in his eye. He was a hero.
