A DIFFERENT POND

A 2018 Caldecott Honor Book that Kirkus Reviews calls "a must-read for our times." A Different Pond is an unforgettable story about a simple event - a long-ago fishing trip. Graphic novelist Thi Bui and acclaimed poet Bao Phi deliver a powerful, honest glimpse into a relationship between father and son - and between cultures, old and new. As a young boy, Bao and his father awoke early, hours before his father's long work day began, to fish on the shores of a small pond in a Western city. Unlike many other anglers, Bao and his father fished for food, not recreation. A successful catch meant a fed family. Between hope-filled casts, Bao's father told him about a different pond in their homeland of Vietnam. Thi Bui's striking, evocative art paired with Phi's expertly crafted prose has earned this powerful picture books six starred reviews and numerous awards.

SELLING POINTS

MY FOOTPRINTS

Every child feels different in some way, but Thuy feels "double different." She is Vietnamese American and she has two moms. Thuy walks home one winter afternoon, angry and lonely after a bully's taunts. Then a bird catches her attention and sets Thuy on an imaginary exploration. What if she could fly away like a bird? What if she could sprint like a deer, or roar like a bear? Mimicking the footprints of each creature in the snow, she makes her way home to the arms of her moms. Together, the three of them imagine beautiful and powerful creatures who always have courage – just like Thuy.

SELLING POINTS

- A second picture book by Bao Phi, author of the Caldecott-honor-winning A Different Pond
- Themes address a story about finding inner courage and strength and rising above bullies
- A celebration of an LGBTQ family and embracing differences

NEW TITLE

SOARING IN STYLE

Long before Amelia Earhart became a superstar, she was a girl who longed to touch the stars. But the dresses women had to wear at the time made those dreams seem almost impossible. Amelia didn't let that stop her. As a young aviator breaking records and expectations, she learned to fly her plane with flair. Later, she dared to create a trendsetting fashion line for active women like herself. Soaring in Style tells the groundbreaking story of how Amelia Earhart defied expectations in the air and on the ground to become America's first celebrity fashion designer.

JUBILEE

Lis Hartel became paralyzed after contracting polio in 1944. Her dreams of riding horses and competing in the sport of dressage were shattered. After months in the hospital, doctors told her she'd never ride again. Lis tried anyway. How do you stay on a horse without using your legs? How do you give the subtle cues needed in dressage with limited mobility? With hard work–and an unlikely horse named Jubilee. After years of training together and creating a new way of communicating, Lis and Jubilee danced into the competition ring, and eventually all the way to the Olympics. Lis Hartel became the first woman with a disability to compete in the Olympics, and the first woman to stand beside men on the Olympic winner's podium for equestrian sports.

- First picture book on the market about this heroic horse and rider who overcame great odds
- Empowering story about facing adversity and achieving with disability, in the spirit of Railway Jack and Karl's New Beak
- Offers young readers a hero who represents many groups: women, athletes with disabilities, horse lovers
- Author KT Johnston has established a niche in telling incredible stories about humans and their animals, touching on friendship, determination, and therapy and healing

THE BRAVE CYCLIST

Once a skinny and weak child, Italian Gino Bartali rose to become a Tour de France champion and one of cycling's greatest stars. But all that seemed unimportant when his country came under the grip of a brutal dictator and entered World War II on the side of Nazi Germany. Bartali might have appeared a mere bystander to the harassment and hatred directed toward Italy's Jewish people, but secretly he accepted a role in a dangerous plan to help them. Putting his own life at risk, Bartali used his speed and endurance on a bike to deliver documents that Jewish people needed to help them escape harm. His inspiring story reveals how one person could make a difference against violence and prejudice during the time of the Holocaust.

SELLING POINTS

- Gino Bartali's life provides an inspiring story that merges sports and wartime heroics
- Bartali's little-known acts of heroism reveal how one person could make a difference against fascism and anti-Semitism
- Personal stories help young readers empathise with those who lived under the rule of brutal dictators

VOLCANO

Lava shoots in the air, then bubbles down mountains, flattening, burning and boiling everything in its path. The destructive forces of volcances are terrifying and well-known. But what about their other forces? Volcances can spur new growth of plants and trees. In the water, they create an environment where coral reefs and sea life can thrive. In fact, the meeting of volcanic fire and ocean water gave way to life on Earth. Award-winning children's science author Mary M. Cerullo brings her excellent research and signature storytelling style to the dynamic subject of volcances. Stitching together science, history and mythology, Cerullo explores these explosive wonders of nature and reveals the secrets they've been keeping since the beginning of the world.

SELLING POINTS

- High-interest subject matter that also ties well into geography and science curricula
- This title brings together the science, history, and cultural elements of volcanoes and reveals the compelling fact that volcanic activity helped foster the very first life on Earth

An all-ages, adventure-comedy graphic novel, Billy Johnson and His Duck Are Explorers has it all: humor. peril. and out-of-this-world archaeological adventures (oh, and ducks!). Billy Johnson, the son of two world-famous explorers (who mysteriously disappeared eight years ago) has big dreams. The teenager may be a part-time janitor now, but exploring is in his blood. He just needs one big discovery to prove to the Explorers League that he's worthy of the rank of Ace Explorer. Luckily, Billy has an ally in his best friend, Barrace. Not only is Barrace a college professor of linguistics, but he's also a duck! Together, these boon companions brave hidden jungle kingdoms, haunted tombs, deadly deserts, and treacherous mythological trials to uncover the mysteries of the world. But will they discover that the biggest mystery of all may be following them every step of the way?

The pressure of being the star player weighed on him. Not to mention the demanding schedule. Practice, games and weekend tournaments took up every minute of his free time.

He hadn't fielt like that when he'd first started playing. Back then, Deven and his friends had watched hundreds of basketball tips and tricks videos. They'd tried to copy the coolest tricks in their local park. Basketball had been the ultimate freedom.

But that was then. Now, basketball just wasn't fan anymore. But a game winner is always nice, Devon

But a game-winner is always nice, Devon thought, bringing his mind back to the present.

A moment later, Ms Walker, the team coach, joined them on the court, "Great job, team!" she said. "Devon, amazing shot! We can always count on you."

RATING YOUR BUNKMATES AND OTHER CAMP CRIMES

Twelve-year-old Abigail Hensley is a socially awkward aspiring anthropologist who has always had trouble connecting with her peers. Abigail is hopeful that a week at sleepaway camp is the answer to finally making a friend. After all, her extensive research shows that summer camp is the best place to make lifelong connections. Using her tried-and-true research methods, Abigail begins to study her cabinmates for friendship potential. But just when it seems that she is off to a good start, her bunkmate's phone gets stolen, and Abigail is the main suspect. Can she clear her name, find the real culprit, and make a friend before the week is done?

SELLING POINTS

- Clever and humorous in tone, this book captures the spirit of summer camp--carefree, fun, and a little mysterious
- Main character Abigail, who struggles with social interactions, will speak to readers who have ever felt left out or awkward. This is a story about an outsider who ultimately finds her place in a community
- Thread of mystery runs throughout the book, keeping readers on their toes
- Unique format beginning each chapter will hook readers

DALYA AND THE MAGIC INK BOTTLE

When twelve-year-old Dalya is dragged to Istanbul to help sell her family's ancestral home, the visit begins unpromisingly. Most of the aged mansion is off-limits because it's falling apart, her father is ignoring her, and her great aunt keeps prattling on about a family curse. Despite warnings against it, Dalya tiptoes upstairs, where she finds an old bottle of magic ink hidden under a floorboard. She asks the bottle's jinn (aka genie) to grant her a simple wish...to send her home. Except the jinn interprets "go home" to mean "send me back in time and turn me into a cat." Then Dalya must set off on a wild adventure through Istanbul's animal underworld to find the jinn with the power to set things right.

SELLING POINTS

- The Wizard of Oz meets Back to the Future in this middle-grade novel, a charming tale that combines adventure with cultural literacy and selfdiscovery
- An intriguing tale told with vivid writing and crisp pacing
- Set in Istanbul, Turkey, the story brings to life a place unfamiliar to many readers and introduces the culture in a way that honors it
- The author has family in Turkey and has visited the area extensively

MY LIFE CYCLE

Help young readers get to know plants, animals, and other living things from start to finish. My Life Cycle books use adorable, first-person narratives to introduce a variety of life cycles. These illustrated nonfiction picture books combine science and humor to deepen students' understanding of different organisms and help young readers make easy comparisons between their life cycles and that of other living things. Fact boxes present additional science information, and each book ends with a complete life-cycle diagram.

SELLING POINTS

- Fun, illustrated introductions to life cycles of plants and animals from the point of view of the subject
- Supports Next Generation Science Standards for understanding that plants and animals have unique and diverse life cycles
